

I believe xm radio is a good source letting you know what is going on around the world because i travel alot and the traffic stations help me to get around and void costly delays that could effect my business and the wheather reoprts let me know whats ahead of me so ill know to look for along the way. I think it would be wrong to stop these broadcast because millions of people rely on them now.